

Activor® Wireless Repeater REP22

Activor® Wireless Repeater REP22

Activor® repeater REP22 is designed to extend RF range for all DFM wireless products, such as Activor® remote, wireless shock sensor, wireless dual press panic button and etc. REP22 receives wireless signals from the transmitter and forwards them to the receiver. Its design is the solution for a wide range of applications, from small domestic to large commercial sites.

Key Features

- Simple and easy to install, use and maintain
- Options of single or multi repeater application
- Options for code-passing-through or code-verification operation
- Easy to learn; no DIP switch setting required
- Single switch with dual functions serving as tamper and leaning button
- Wide wireless range of 150m in the open air
- The backup battery can support operation for 10 hours after the main power is lost
- Water resistance; can be used in outdoor application